

Cœur de Lavande Lavender Wand

The Legend

Long ago offered to young fiancées, the « Cœurs de Lavande » were intended to protect the trousseau and to perfume the linens, stored in armoires or drawers.

They also decorated the home, placed in baskets in palettes of colors to offer as a gift of welcome.

The Art of Receiving

A ribbon to seduce : in the time when seduction was expressed differently, ribbons were used to attach, to decorate hats, belts...

Ribbons evoked all possible forms of hope.

A gift tied with a beautiful ribbon remains today a symbol of nice surprise !

Good things should last

The most beautiful gift is to be welcome. The best lavender associated with the most beautiful ribbon (ribbon, antique ribbon, silk of Lyon) distinguish this exceptional gift. When you find such an object, know that it is made by hand and that it requires an exceptional know-how. Its colors can express your tastes and its fragrance comes from a unique terroir in the world : La Provence !

*Allow yourself to be surprised by this natural object which awakens the senses :
visual, tactile and olfactory !*
